Dear AWS Organisers and Delegates,

“Let us never negotiate out of fear. But let us never fear to negotiate.”

~J.F. Kennedy

The ISC students and faculty of Jamnabai Narsee School excitedly look forward to the delegates honing their diplomatic skills and understanding the complexities of governance at the thirteenth edition of the Annual World Summit.

The agendas this year will provide a dynamic platform for students to learn, grow and prepare themselves to become informed and proactive global citizens. I am confident that the young minds will bring fresh perspectives and innovative solutions to the table, reminding us of the power of youth in driving meaningful change.

I urge each one of you to uphold the ideals of peace, security, human rights and development, and work towards consensus, even when faced with diverse viewpoints and conflicting interests. On behalf of the ISC section of Jamnabai Narsee School, I invite you to harness this opportunity to make meaningful strides towards a more unified and equitable world.

Come. See. Conquer.

Best wishes for a productive and impactful simulation.
